

Update iPhone iOS

Close all your applications and follow the instructions below.

NOTE: You will need to have a strong cell-signal or be connected to Wi-Fi.

During the update, your phone will be unavailable to take calls and will likely reboot at least once.

Go to settings and select General:

Under General, go to Software Update and install the update.

Final screen should look similar to something like iOS XX.X.X

