

DJJ NEWS

Virginia Department of Juvenile Justice

November 10, 2016

VJJA Holds 40th Annual Fall Juvenile Justice Institute

*Andrew K. Block Jr.
2016 Meritorious Service Award for Administration*

*Stephanie Garrison
Past President's Gavel Award*

*Alice Brown
2016 Meritorious Service Award
for Residential Services*

*David Hall
2016 Meritorious Service Award
for Community Service*

*Caitlyn Draper, left, and Rachel Kancherla accept the 2016
Meritorious Service Award for Court Services on behalf of winner
Tambrey A. Hall.*

The Virginia Juvenile Justice Association (VJJA) recently held its 40th Fall Juvenile Justice Institute at the Renaissance Hotel in Portsmouth. Dr. Michael Gillette, president of Bioethical Services of Virginia Inc. in Lynchburg, provided the keynote address. Jack Ledden, DJJ Deputy Director for Residential Services and some DJJ residents led a breakout session entitled “The Community Treatment Model From a Youth’s Perspective.” Another session entitled “Understanding the Impact of DJJ Transformation On the Continuum of Youth Services In The Correctional Center and Community Settings” was led by DJJ’s State Program Manager Beth Stinnett and Central Admissions and Placement (CAP) Unit Manager Andrea McMahon.

The organization also presented its annual awards as follows:

Life Membership Award: Rick Teague, Psychologist, CSU 29—Pearisburg (Retired), and Sen. David Marsden.

Past President’s Gavel Award: Stephanie Garrison, DJJ Regional Program Manager.

The 2016 Meritorious Service Award for Community Service: David Hall, Juvenile Services Counselor, Newport News Juvenile Detention Center.

The 2016 Meritorious Service Award for Court Services: Tambrey A. Hall, Probation Supervisor, CSU 21—Martinsville.

The 2016 Meritorious Service Award for Residential Services: Alice Brown, Instructional Assistant, Bon Air Juvenile Correctional Center.

The 2016 Meritorious Service Award for Administration: Andrew K. Block Jr., Director, VA Department of Juvenile Justice.

