Public Service Week

Honoring Your Commitment to the Service of Others

A Public Service Recognition Week Like No Other In History

This year's Public Service Recognition week takes on especially poignant significance. We are witnessing public service employees around the world selflessly and heroically step forward to do the job that needs to be done to care for others in this unprecedented time. You are among those heroes. This special edition of the DJJ Forum is dedicated to you.

Bon Air Medical Team

Beyond The Call

Many DJJ employees have gone even beyond the extraordinary work they already are doing on behalf of our youth by donating their skills to the community in various ways. Above: Central Region Program Manager Stephanie Garrison put her sewing skills to work, making nearly 60 masks she donated to two area hospitals, including VCU Medical Center (left). She and Tabitha Young-Osborne also assembled gift bowls for offices in the Central Region, which were delivered during Public Service Recognition Week. Below, from left: Statewide Program Manager Beth Stinnett sewed about 100 masks to donate to various organizations. And Yvonne B. Miller High School Quilting Instructor Roy Mitchell has been making masks nonstop for the last three weeks; he estimates he has made more than 800 so far to donate to various hospitals and long-term care facilities.

They're probation from Oliver Hill
You won't find them sitting still
Once their work has begun
They are there until all is done
Put on gloves, wear a mask
Do what it takes to finish the task
Contact clients, enter a note
Without a doubt they have my vote
Rarely are they ever defiant
They strive each month to be 100% compliant
The team of Heather, Jonathan,
Jenn and Corey
What more can I say but kudos to them and
End of story
