1 Introduction and Overview

The Department of Juvenile Justice (DJJ) provides services to youth and families. In FY 2025, DJJ operated 30 court service units (CSUs) (see Appendix A) and Bon Air Juvenile Correctional Center (JCC). As of June 30, 2025, DJJ audits and certifies 32 CSUs, including two locally operated units; 24 juvenile detention centers (JDCs); the JCC; and 16 group homes, shelter care facilities, transitional living programs, and independent living programs. As of June 30, 2025, DJJ also oversees six community placement programs (CPPs), seven individual bed placements (IBPs), and five detention reentry programs. The Board of Juvenile Justice regulates and monitors policies and activities for the programs and facilities for which DJJ is responsible. Additionally, DJJ contracts with providers for a variety of services.

Agency Description

DJJ's mission is to protect the public by preparing court-involved and committed youth to be successful citizens. To accomplish this mission, DJJ uses an integrated approach to juvenile justice, bringing together current research and best practices to target delinquent behavior; meet the needs of court-involved youth, victims, and communities; and manage activities and resources in a responsible and proactive manner. DJJ's primary responsibilities are to hold youth accountable for wrongdoing, prevent further offending, and treat all youth fairly.

DJJ strives to balance the safety of the community with the needs of youth. When appropriate, youth may be diverted from the court system as a means to best address minor infractions and low-risk behaviors. For matters that require court involvement, DJJ uses a balanced approach that provides (i) protection of public safety through structured community supervision or secure confinement of youth, (ii) a system of incentives and graduated sanctions in both community and direct care settings to ensure accountability for youth's actions, and (iii) a variety of services and programs that build skills and competencies (e.g., substance use and aggression management treatment, education, career readiness). These strategies enable youth to become law-abiding members of the community during and upon release from DJJ's supervision.

DJJ is committed to using the Risk-Need-Responsivity (RNR) principles by (i) focusing resources on youth with the highest risk of reoffending and (ii) addressing the individual risk factors that contribute to the initiation and continuation of delinquent behavior to create the greatest reduction in offending. DJJ recognizes that successful outcomes require services that are individualized to the strengths and needs of youth, families, and communities. Individual risk factors are identified and addressed to increase the likelihood of successful outcomes. Likewise, appropriate public safety strategies, such as electronic monitoring, drug screening, and various levels of supervision are matched to youth's individualized circumstances. DJJ also uses a set of research-based and consensus-based instruments to guide decisions at different points within the juvenile justice system, including the initial decision to detain and the assignment to various levels of community probation or parole supervision.

DJJ uses a continuum of services and alternative placements that (i) offer programs and treatments to divert youth from further involvement in the justice system, (ii) provide appropriate dispositional options for youth under supervision, and (iii) enable committed youth to return successfully to the community. DJJ uses a regional service coordination model to help assess existing programming, develop new service capacity, and select and subcontract with direct service providers (DSPs). Additionally, the CPPs, IBPs, and detention reentry programs in several JDCs provide alternatives to JCC placement for youth in direct care. These programs allow committed youth to be placed in smaller settings intended to keep them closer to family, provide individualized services to address criminogenic needs, and enhance reentry planning and services.

Although DJJ bears the primary responsibility for many aspects of Virginia's juvenile justice system, collaborative partnerships with the public and private sectors as well as families are key to its work. For example, local governments and multijurisdictional commissions operate secure JDCs and provide an array of services to youth and families. Within each community, DJJ works with law enforcement, behavioral and mental health providers, schools, social services, and other entities. DJJ also secures services from private providers to assist in treating youth and strengthening community ties. These partnerships enable DJJ to intervene effectively and efficiently in addressing the needs of youth, their families, and communities.

Guiding Values

Values are part of every culture. DJJ has identified four guiding values to support the growth and development of the youth in its care: safety, responsibility, communication, and respect.

- » Safety involves maintaining security and keeping everyone free from harm. When everyone feels safe, they can focus on other needs, such as learning new skills.
- » Responsibility involves everyone's obligation to care for and help themselves and others. It means making decisions and being accountable for those decisions.
- » Communication helps everyone obtain needs and wants as well as accomplish goals faster, more often, and in the ways they want. Effective communication can also promote safety and is important in all areas of life.
- » Respect involves honoring the differences, abilities, preferences, and experiences of others. It also means taking care of oneself, other people, others' belongings, and shared environments.

Definitions

Adjudication: the findings of a court on the merits of a petition (e.g., delinquency, CHINS, CHINSup, or status offense) based on evidence presented at the adjudicatory hearing.

Adjudicatory Hearing: a court hearing on the merits of a petition filed alleging a delinquent act, CHINS, CHINSup, or status offense.

Admission: when a youth officially enters the direct care population.

Blended Sentence: a sentencing option for a youth convicted in circuit court, which combines a juvenile disposition with an adult sentence. For example, the circuit court may impose an adult sentence with a portion of that sentence to be served in the custody of DJJ; the judge may suspend the adult sentence pending successful completion of the juvenile disposition. See § 16.1-272 of the Code of Virginia. The exact use of this term can vary; in this report, blended sentence data reflect youth with an active VADOC sentence at the time of commitment to DJJ.

Certification: when a judge determines after a preliminary hearing that there is probable cause in the case of a youth 16 years of age or older charged with a violent juvenile felony, jurisdiction for the case is transferred to circuit court for trial as an adult. If the pending charges are for aggravated murder, first- or second-degree murder, lynching, or aggravated malicious wounding, the case is automatically certified to circuit court for trial. If the pending charges are for any other violent juvenile felony, the case may be certified to circuit court based on the discretion of the attorney for the Commonwealth if certain statutory requirements are met. Any youth convicted in circuit court after certification will be treated as an adult in any subsequent offense. See page 9 and §§ 16.1-269.1 and 16.1-271 of the Code of Virginia.

CHINS: a child (i) whose behavior, conduct, or condition presents or results in a serious threat to the well-being and physical safety of that child, (ii) who remains away from or deserts or abandons their family or lawful custodian during one occasion and is demonstrably at risk of coercion, exploitation, abuse, or manipulation or has been lured from their parent or lawful custodian by means of trickery or misrepresentation or under false pretenses, or (iii) if under the age of 14, whose behavior, conduct, or condition presents or results in a serious threat to the well-being and physical safety of another person. To meet the definition of CHINS, there must be a clear and substantial danger to the life or health of the child or another person, and the intervention of the court must be found to be essential to provide the treatment, rehabilitation, or services needed by the child or the child's family. See § 16.1-228 of the Code of Virginia.

CHINSup: a child who (i) is habitually and without justification absent from school despite opportunity and reasonable effort to maintain school attendance, (ii) runs away from family or lawful custodian on more than one occasion, or (iii) escapes from or leaves a court-ordered residential placement without permission. See § 16.1-228 of the Code of Virginia.

Commitment: the court-ordered disposition placing a youth in the custody of DJJ for a determinate or indeterminate period of time. To be eligible for commitment, a youth must be 14 years of age or older and adjudicated delinquent or convicted of a felony offense, a Class 1 misdemeanor and a prior felony, or four Class 1 misdemeanors that were not part of a common act, transaction, or scheme; or be 11 years of age or older and adjudicated delinquent of a violent juvenile felony. See § 16.1-278.8 of the Code of Virginia. A commitment to DJJ differs from an admission. An admission may occur days or weeks after the youth is committed to DJJ (during which time the youth is held in a JDC). A single admission could be the result of multiple commitments to DJJ (for example, a youth may be committed to DJJ by more than one court). For these reasons, the number of commitments to DJJ in a FY may be different from the number of admissions.

CPP: a direct care residential program in a JDC. The goal of CPPs is to place youth closer to their home community. CPPs focus on addressing PYD and increasing competency in the areas of education, vocational preparation, life and social skills, thinking skills, employability skills, and anger management.

CSU: a locally or state-operated entity that provides services to the J&DR district court, including intake, investigations and reports, probation, parole, case management, and other related services in the community. See Appendix A.

DAI: a detention screening tool used during CSU intake to guide detention decisions using objective criteria. See Appendix C.

Delinquent Offense: an act committed by a youth that would be a felony or misdemeanor offense if committed by an adult under state law, local ordinance, or federal law. Delinquent offenses do not include status offenses. See § 16.1-228 of the Code of Virginia.

Detainment: the first admission of a continuous detention stay. A new detainment is not counted if a youth is transferred to another JDC, has a change in dispositional status before being released, or returns to a JDC as part of a disposition of weekend detention.

Detention Hearing: a judicial hearing held pursuant to § 16.1-250 of the Code of Virginia that determines whether a youth should be placed in a JDC, continue to be held in a JDC, or be released with or without conditions until an adjudicatory hearing for a delinquent offense.

Detention Reentry: a direct care residential program in a JDC. The goal of detention reentry is to provide youth with a stepdown option to help reintroduce them back to the community. Youth are placed in detention reentry 30 to 180 days before their scheduled release.

Determinate Commitment: the commitment of a youth 14 years of age or older to DJJ as a serious offender. The court specifies the length of the commitment, has continuing jurisdiction over the youth, and must conduct periodic reviews if the youth remains in direct care for longer than 24 months. A youth may be committed to DJJ as a serious offender for up to seven years, not to exceed the youth's 21st birthday. See § 16.1-285.1 of the Code of Virginia.

Direct Care: the time during which a youth who is committed to DJJ pursuant to §§ 16.1-272, 16.1-278.8(A) (14), 16.1-278.8(A)(17), or 16.1-285.1 of the Code of Virginia is under the supervision of staff in a juvenile residential facility operated by DJJ or an alternative placement.

Disposition: the treatment, conditions, services, and sanctions ordered by the court for a youth adjudicated delinquent, found to be a status offender, or found to be in need of services or supervision.

Dispositional Hearing: a hearing in the J&DR district court which occurs after an adjudication. During this hearing, the court may impose treatment, conditions, services, and sanctions. See §§ 16.1-278.4, 16.1-278.5, 16.1-278.6, and 16.1-278.8 of the Code of Virginia.

Diversion: the handling of a juvenile intake complaint in an informal manner as an alternative to the official court process. The intake officer must develop a plan for the youth that may include counseling, informal supervision, restitution, community service, or other programs. The youth and parents must agree to the diversion plan. An alleged violent juvenile felony and a complaint after a prior diversion or adjudication on a felony offense cannot be diverted. Truancy complaints may be diverted unless there has been a prior truancy diversion or truancy adjudication within the preceding three years or a total of three prior truancy diversions or truancy adjudications. Supervision for diversion is limited to 120 days. See §§ 16.1-227 and 16.1-260 of the Code of Virginia.

Domestic Relations: matters before the J&DR district court having to do with family and child welfare, including child custody, visitation, paternity, and other petitions delineated in § 16.1-241 of the Code of Virginia. Criminal and delinquency matters are not included.

DRT: a standardized tool that guides POs' recommendations for disposition to the court. The tool is designed to encourage a greater degree of consistency, reliability, and equity of recommendations in pre-D social history reports.

FY: the time period measured from July 1 of one year to June 30 of the following year. For example, FY 2025 began July 1, 2024, and ended June 30, 2025.

Group Home: a juvenile residential facility that is a community-based, home-like single dwelling or its acceptable equivalent. Placements can be pre-D or post-D.

Indeterminate Commitment: the commitment of a youth to DJJ in which the youth's LOS range (ERD to LRD) is calculated based on statutory requirements and the LOS Guidelines. The commitment may not exceed 36 continuous months except in cases of murder or manslaughter or extend past a youth's 21st birthday. See §§ 16.1-278.8(A)(14) and 16.1-285 of the Code of Virginia.

Intake Case: one or more intake complaints for a youth involving an alleged delinquent act, a CHINS, a CHINSup, or a status offense. For juvenile intake complaints, an intake officer at the CSU decides whether the complaint will result in no action, diversion, or the filing of a petition initiating formal court action.

Intake Complaint: a request for the processing of a petition to initiate a matter that is alleged to fall within the jurisdiction and venue of a particular J&DR district court. An intake officer at the CSU decides whether the complaint will result in no action, diversion, or the filing of a petition initiating formal court action.

JCC: a DJJ-operated secure residential facility with construction fixtures designed to prevent escape and to restrict the movement and activities of youth held in lawful custody. JCCs house youth who have been committed to DJJ. See §§ 16.1-278.8, 16.1-285, and 16.1-285.1 of the Code of Virginia.

JDC: a local or regional secure residential facility with construction fixtures designed to prevent escape and to restrict the movement and activities of youth held in lawful custody. JDCs may house pre-D and post-D youth. See §§ 16.1-248.1, 16.1-278.8, and 16.1-284.1 of the Code of Virginia.

LOS Guidelines: a framework established by the Board of Juvenile Justice, as mandated by § 66-10 of the Code of Virginia, to determine the length of time a youth indeterminately committed to DJJ will remain in direct care. Factors that affect a youth's LOS include the seriousness of the committing offense(s) and YASI risk level. Treatment needs, educational and vocational accomplishments, and behavior may affect a youth's LOS. See Appendix D.

Parole: a period of supervision and monitoring of a youth in the community following release from commitment if ordered by the court or administratively determined by DJJ.

Petition: a document filed with the J&DR district court by the intake officer initiating formal court action. Petitions may allege that a youth is delinquent, a CHINS, a CHINSup, an abused or neglected child, or a status offender; may be for domestic relations purposes; or may be for other actions over which the J&DR district court has jurisdiction (e.g., protective orders, a minor seeking judicial consent for medical procedures).

Post-D Detention with Programs: the ordering of a youth by a judge to a JDC for up to six months (or 12 months for felony or Class 1 misdemeanor offenses resulting in death) with structured programs of treatment and services intended to build and maintain community ties. In general, to be eligible for post-D detention, a youth must be 14 years of age or older and found to have committed a non-violent juvenile felony or a Class 1 or Class 2 misdemeanor offense that is punishable by confinement in a state or local secure facility. See §§ 16.1-278.8(A)(16) and 16.1-284.1 of the Code of Virginia.

Post-D Detention without Programs: the ordering of a youth by a judge to a JDC without special programs provided, typically up to 30 days. In general, to be eligible for post-D detention, a youth must be 14 years of age or older and found to have committed a non-violent juvenile felony or a Class 1 or Class 2 misdemeanor offense that is punishable by confinement in a state or local secure facility. See §§ 16.1-284.1, 16.1-291, and 16.1-292 of the Code of Virginia.

Pre-D Detention: the confinement of a youth in a JDC while awaiting a dispositional or adjudicatory hearing. Generally, to be eligible for pre-D detention, there must be probable cause establishing that the youth committed an offense that would be a felony or Class 1 misdemeanor offense if committed by an adult, violated the terms of probation or parole for such an offense, or knowingly and intentionally possessed or transported a firearm. In addition, the youth must be a clear and substantial threat to another person, the property of others, or to self; have threatened to abscond from the court's jurisdiction; or have willfully failed to appear at a court hearing within the last year. A youth may be placed in pre-D detention for other statutorily prescribed circumstances, such as when the youth is a fugitive from another state or failed to comply with conditions of release for what would be a felony or Class 1 misdemeanor charge if committed by an adult. See §§ 16.1-248.1 and 16.1-249 of the Code of Virginia.

Pre-D and Post-D Reports: documents, also known as social history reports, that include identifying and demographic information for the youth, including current offense and prior court involvement; social, medical, psychological, and educational information about the youth; information about the youth's family; and dispositional and treatment recommendations if permitted by the court. These reports are prepared within the timelines established by approved procedures (i) when ordered by the court, (ii) for each youth placed on probation supervision, (iii) for each youth committed to DJJ or placed in post-D detention with programs, or (iv) upon written request from another CSU when accompanied by a court order.

Probable Cause: reasonable grounds to believe that an offense has been committed and the accused is the person who committed it.

Probation: the court-ordered disposition placing a youth under the supervision of a CSU in the community, requiring compliance with specified rules and conditions.

Psychotropic Medication: prescribed drugs that affect the mind, perception, behavior, or mood. Common types include antidepressants, anxiolytics or anti-anxiety agents, antipsychotics, and mood stabilizers.

Quarter: a three-month time period of a FY or CY. For example, the first quarter of FY 2025 began July 1, 2024, and ended September 30, 2024.

Recidivism Rate: the percentage of individuals who commit a subsequent offense, measured in this report by rearrest, reconviction, and reincarceration. See page 73.

Region: DJJ divides Virginia into six regions in order to manage the use of community resources statewide. See map on page 11 for an overview of DJJ's regions.

Serious Offender: a youth who is committed to DJJ and given a determinate commitment. See § 16.1-285.1 of the Code of Virginia.

Shelter Care: a nonsecure facility or emergency shelter specifically approved to provide a range of as-needed services on an individual basis for up to 90 days. See § 16.1-248.1 of the Code of Virginia.

Status Offense: an act prohibited by law that would not be an offense if committed by an adult, such as truancy, curfew violation, or running away. See § 16.1-228 of the Code of Virginia.

Subsequent Commitment: a commitment to DJJ for a new offense committed after the date of commitment that requires a recalculation of the original LOS. These commitments may be associated with an offense that occurred prior to admission but was not processed by the court until after admission or with an offense that occurred after admission while in direct care. An offense that occurred while in direct care also may result in an adult jail or prison sentence rather than a subsequent commitment to DJJ.

TDO: an order issued by a judge, magistrate, or special justice for the involuntary inpatient mental health treatment of a youth, after an in-person evaluation by a mental health evaluator, when it is found that (i) because of mental illness, the minor (a) presents a serious danger to self or others to the extent that a severe or irreversible injury is likely to result, or (b) is experiencing a serious deterioration of the ability to care for oneself in a developmentally age-appropriate manner; and (ii) the minor is in need of inpatient treatment for a mental illness and is reasonably likely to benefit from the proposed treatment. A TDO is for a brief period of time (up to 96 hours) for treatment and evaluation and pending a subsequent review of the admission (the minor may be released or involuntarily committed at the hearing). See § 16.1-335 et seq. of the Code of Virginia.

Technical Violation: an act which violates a court order but does not necessarily violate a law, such as a violation of terms and conditions of probation, parole, or release from secure detention.

Transfer: when the J&DR district court, after consideration of specific statutory factors, determines the J&DR district court is not the proper court for the proceedings involving a youth 14 years of age or older at the time of the offense who is accused of a felony, and transfers jurisdiction to the circuit court. See page 9.

Transfer Hearing: a hearing in the J&DR district court wherein the judge determines whether the J&DR district court should retain jurisdiction or transfer the case for criminal proceedings in circuit court. A transfer hearing is initiated by the attorney for the Commonwealth filing a motion in the J&DR district court for a hearing. The judge must determine that the act would be a felony if committed by an adult and examine issues of competency, the youth's history, and specific statutory factors. Any youth convicted in circuit court after transfer will be treated as an adult in all future criminal cases. See § 16.1-269.1 of the Code of Virginia.

Violent Juvenile Felony: any of the delinquent acts enumerated in §§ 16.1-269.1(B) and 16.1-269.1(C) of the Code of Virginia when committed by a youth 14 years of age or older. The offenses include but are not limited to murder, felonious injury by mob, abduction, malicious wounding, malicious wounding of a law enforcement officer, felonious poisoning, adulteration of products, carjacking, rape, forcible sodomy, and object sexual penetration. See § 16.1-228 of the Code of Virginia.

YASI: a validated tool which provides an objective assessment of an individual's risk of reoffending using both static and dynamic risk and protective factors in 10 distinct functional domains. See Appendix E.

Examples of Juvenile Dispositions

Juvenile dispositions may include the following:

- » Defer disposition for a specified period of time, with or without probation supervision, to consider dismissing the case if the youth exhibits good behavior during the deferral period;
- » Impose a fine and/or order restitution;
- » Order the youth to complete a public service project;
- » Suspend the youth's driver's license;
- » Impose a curfew on the youth;
- » Order the youth and/or the parent to participate in programs or services;
- » Transfer legal custody to an appropriate individual, agency, organization, or local board of social services;
- » Place the youth on probation with specified conditions and limitations that may include required participation in programs or services;
- » Place the youth in a JDC for 30 days or less;
- » Place the youth in a post-D program in a JDC generally for a period not to exceed six months; and
- » Commit the youth to DJJ for an indeterminate or determinate period of time.

Juveniles in Circuit Court

Consideration for Trial in Circuit Court

Pursuant to § 16.1-269.1 et seq. of the Code of Virginia, cases involving juveniles that meet certain age and offense criteria may be certified or transferred to circuit court, where the juvenile will be tried as an adult under one of the following circumstances:

Mandatory Certification: if a juvenile 16 years of age or older is charged with aggravated murder, first- or second-degree murder, murder by lynching, or aggravated malicious wounding, the juvenile receives a preliminary hearing in J&DR district court. If probable cause is found, the court certifies the charges, the case is sent to circuit court, and the juvenile is tried as an adult. The certification may not be appealed.

Prosecutorial Discretionary Certification: when a juvenile 16 years of age or older is charged with a violent juvenile felony as defined in § 16.1-228 of the Code of Virginia, which does not require mandatory certification, the prosecution may elect to certify if certain statutory requirements in § 16.1-269.1(C) are met. The juvenile receives a preliminary hearing in J&DR district court. If probable cause is found, the court certifies the charges, the case is sent to circuit court, and the juvenile is tried as an adult. The certification may not be appealed.

Transfer: when a juvenile 14 years of age or older is charged with a felony offense, the prosecutor may ask a J&DR district court judge to transfer the case to circuit court for trial as an adult. The judge receives a transfer report documenting each of the factors that the court must consider in the hearing (e.g., age, seriousness and number of alleged offenses, amenability to treatment and rehabilitation, availability of dispositional alternatives, prior juvenile record, mental capacity and emotional maturity, educational record). The judge decides whether the juvenile is a proper person to remain in the jurisdiction of the J&DR district court. If not, the case is transferred to the circuit court. The decision may be appealed by either party.

Direct Indictment: in cases proceeding under mandatory or prosecutorial discretionary certification, if the J&DR district court does not find probable cause, the attorney for the Commonwealth may seek a direct indictment in the circuit court on the offense and all ancillary charges. The direct indictment may not be appealed.

Waiver: a juvenile 14 years of age or older charged with an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult may waive the jurisdiction of the J&DR district court with the written consent of counsel and have the case heard in the circuit court.

Trial of Juveniles in Circuit Court

Juvenile cases transferred to circuit court are tried in the same manner as adults except youth are not eligible to be sentenced by a jury. Pursuant to § 16.1-271 of the Code of Virginia, a conviction of a youth as an adult precludes the J&DR district court from taking jurisdiction of such youth for any subsequent offenses allegedly committed by that youth and any pending allegations of delinquency that had not been disposed of by the J&DR district court at the time of the criminal conviction. If a youth is not convicted in circuit court, jurisdiction over that youth for any future alleged delinquent behavior is initiated in the J&DR district court.

Sentencing of Juveniles in Circuit Court

Circuit court judges may sentence youth transferred or certified to their courts to juvenile dispositions, adult sentences, or both. For example, when a youth receives a blended sentence, the court orders the youth to serve the beginning of their sentence with DJJ and a later portion in an adult correctional facility.

According to the most recent VCSC study on the topic, one-third of youth convicted of felonies in circuit court in FY 2017 were given a disposition involving DJJ. The other two-thirds of youth were sentenced to prison, jail, or adult probation.

Juvenile Justice System Process

Steps in the Juvenile Justice System

Intake

- » When an offense is alleged against a youth, any individual (e.g., parents, agency representatives, law enforcement personnel) may file a complaint with a CSU intake officer.
- » When the youth has contact with law enforcement, the youth may be taken into custody, summonsed and released until a hearing on the matter, diverted, or counseled and released with no further action.
- » The intake officer reviews the circumstances of the complaint to determine whether probable cause exists.
- » If the intake officer finds that no probable cause exists, the complaint is unfounded, and no further action is taken. The complaining party may appeal this decision to the magistrate if the offense is a felony or Class 1 misdemeanor.
- » If probable cause exists, in many cases the intake officer has the discretion to informally process or divert the case, file a petition to initiate court action, or file a petition with an order placing the youth in a JDC.

Petition and Detention

- » The filing of a petition initiates official court action on the complaint and pre-court services are offered to youth and families prior to scheduled court hearings.
- » If the intake officer releases the youth, the next court appearance is the arraignment, where the youth is informed of the offenses charged in the petition, advised of the right to an attorney, and may be asked to enter a plea. The youth does not have the right to an attorney at the arraignment hearing.
- » If the youth is detained pending the hearing, a detention hearing must be held within 72 hours of the detainment. At the detention hearing, the youth has the right to an attorney and is arraigned on the offenses charged in the petition. The judge decides whether to hold the youth in a JDC or release the youth, with or without conditions.

Adjudication or Trial

- » A youth who is adjudicated in J&DR district court does not have the right to a jury trial but has all the other constitutional protections afforded in criminal court, such as the right to an attorney, the right to call and cross-examine witnesses, and the right to refrain from self-incrimination. All delinquency charges must be proven beyond a reasonable doubt.
- » If the judge finds the youth delinquent, the case is usually continued to another day for the judge to make a dispositional decision. The judge's adjudication and dispositional decisions may be appealed by either party to the circuit court for a de novo review (as if the first adjudication never occurred).
- » When a youth is tried in circuit court as an adult, the trial is handled in the same manner as a trial of an adult. In the case of a jury trial, the court determines the sentence. The conviction and sentencing in circuit court may be appealed by either party to the Court of Appeals.

Court Dispositions in Secure Facilities

The information below provides a general overview of dispositions for post-D detention and commitment. This page is not inclusive of all possible dispositions. (See page 8 for examples of court dispositions.) Committed youth may move between placements while in direct care.

Post-D Detention

- » JDCs provide temporary care for youth in secure custody pending a court appearance (pre-D) and those held after disposition (post-D). Dispositions for post-D detention include the following:
  - › Post-D Detention without Programs: the youth is ordered to a JDC without special programs provided, typically up to 30 days. All JDCs offer post-D detention without programs. In FY 2025, the average LOS for post-D detention without programs was 12.7 days.
  - › Post-D Detention with Programs: the youth is ordered to a JDC for up to six months (or 12 months for felony or Class 1 misdemeanor offenses resulting in death) with structured programs of treatment and services intended to build and maintain community ties. As of June 30, 2025, 19 JDCs offer post-D detention with programs. In FY 2025, the average LOS for post-D detention with programs was 5.0 months.

Commitment

- » Commitment places youth in the custody of DJJ for a determinate or indeterminate period of time. Most youth await admission to direct care in a JDC before officially entering the direct care population.
  - › Indeterminate Commitment: DJJ calculates the youth's LOS based on statutory requirements and the LOS Guidelines. In FY 2025, the average LOS for direct care releases with an indeterminate commitment was 19.8 months.
  - › Determinate Commitment: the court specifies the length of the commitment. In FY 2025, the average LOS for direct care releases with a determinate commitment was 28.6 months.
  - › Blended Sentence: the circuit court orders the youth to an active sentence to VADOC upon completion of their commitment to DJJ. In FY 2025, the average LOS for blended sentences was 34.5 months.
- » Once youth are admitted to direct care, they are evaluated at either a JDC or the JCC. The process includes medical, psychological, behavioral, educational, and career-readiness assessments. A team meets to discuss and identify each youth's treatment and mental health needs, determine projected LOS (for indeterminate commitments), recommend where the youth should be placed, and develop a CRCP.
- » DJJ uses multiple placement options for youth in direct care. Placement options include Bon Air JCC; JDC-based direct care placements, including CPPs, IBPs, individually purchased JDC beds, and detention reentry; and other contracted alternatives. CPPs are intended to place youth in smaller settings closer to their home communities to facilitate a smoother transition after release and increase family engagement. IBPs are individualized programs operated in local JDCs for direct care youth. Detention reentry allows youth to begin transitioning back to the community 30 to 180 days before their scheduled release date.

DJJ System Flow Chart, FY 2025*

* Not all CSUs receive and enter all court summons paperwork.

* The initial intake decision is counted. Unsuccessful diversions with a petition filed are included in "Diversion Plan" because diversion is the initial decision.

* In the chart above, "Other" includes the following intake decisions: adult criminal, accepted by ICJ, consent agreement signed, detention order only, pending, returned to out-of-state, shelter care only, and unfounded.

* Disposition categories (i.e., probation, post-D detention with or without programs, direct care) are not inclusive of all possible options.

* Probation, post-D detention, and direct care dispositions are counted based on placement, status, and admission start dates in FY 2025; they do not necessarily connect to the intakes or intake decisions above.

Intakes

- » There were 27,743 juvenile intake cases and 39,882 juvenile intake complaints. Juvenile intake cases may be comprised of one or more intake complaints. In FY 2025, juvenile intake cases had an average of 1.4 complaints.

Intake Decisions

- » A petition was filed for 74.5% of the juvenile intake complaints.
- » Overall, 5.7% of juvenile intake complaints were court summonses. A court summons is issued by a law enforcement officer and filed directly with the court rather than pursuing a petition through the CSU. A court summons may be issued to youth only for certain offenses, such as traffic offenses, low-level alcohol offenses, and select violations of local ordinances.
- » Of the juvenile intake complaints that were not petitioned, 56.7% had a diversion plan and 26.6% were resolved.

Dispositions

- » Of probation, post-D detention, and direct care dispositions, probation was the most common.
- » There were 2,241 probation placements, 853 statuses for post-D detention without programs, 156 statuses for post-D detention with programs, and 173 direct care admissions.

Data in the DRG

Since 2001, DJJ has published the DRG annually to fulfill General Assembly reporting mandates. While there are many similarities between the current DRG and previous editions, changes have been implemented to report the data more accurately and to align with DJJ's changing operational and data needs. Some revisions and data clarifications are described below:

- » Any changes to the data after the download date are not reflected in this report. Data from previous reports may differ slightly.
- » Counts, percentages, and ADPs may not add to totals or 100% due to rounding. Decimal values are used in percentage calculations. Non-zero values may display as zero due to rounding.
- » Expunged cases are included unless otherwise specified.
- » Adult intake, probation, and parole cases are excluded from all data.
- » Not applicable or not available (N/A) is used in tables throughout this report to indicate instances where data cannot be calculated (e.g., groups of zero, offense definitions and classifications, absence of post-D detention with programs, and pending cases in the recidivism analysis).
- » DJJ uses the Code of Virginia and VCC information published by VCSC to designate offenses as felonies; misdemeanors (Class 1 and Class 2-4); CHINS, CHINSup, and status; and other. These designations are checked periodically and updated accordingly.
- » Unless otherwise specified, the MSO is determined by a ranking assigned to each type of complaint. Periodically, DJJ uses VCC information published by VCSC to develop the rankings. Felonies are given the highest ranks, ordered first by their statutory maximum penalty and then their highest primary offense score on VCSC's guidelines. Next, misdemeanors are ranked by their statutory maximum penalty. Finally, the remaining complaints are ranked in the following order from most to least severe: technical violations, other offenses, non-delinquent traffic offenses, status offenses, and DR/CW complaints.
- » The DAI ranking of MSOs used by DJJ is checked periodically against the VCSC designation and the Code of Virginia to ensure consistency and is updated accordingly.
- » Offense categories on pages 23, 41, 52, and 57 are based on the VCC prefix, with the exception of technical and status offenses, which are categorized by the specific VCC. Offense categorizations are checked periodically and updated accordingly. For example, in FY 2025, the "Abusive Language," "Computer," "Paraphernalia," and "Telephone" categories were added to the "Delinquent — Other" offense category. (See Appendix B for a full list of offenses included in the "Delinquent — Other" offense category.)
- » ADPs for probation and parole are calculated using only primary statuses; LOSs are calculated using the entire continuous placement. (See Appendix F for an explanation of continuous probation and parole statuses.)
- » Statewide probation, parole, and commitment ADPs count only one status per youth per day, even if multiple statuses were open simultaneously. However, for CSU or FIPS ADPs, each status is counted even if multiple statuses were open for the same youth simultaneously. Therefore, the sum of CSU or FIPS ADPs may not equal the statewide total. In previous reports, each status was counted in the probation, parole, and commitment ADPs even if multiple statuses were opened simultaneously.
- » With the exception of initial YASIs, when risk is reported, the closest risk assessment completed within 180 days before or after the measurement date (e.g., probation start date) is used unless otherwise specified.
- » Intake cases with successful diversions have at least one complaint with a successful diversion plan and no complaints with a petition.
- » Locality-specific CSU data are presented in summary form. More detailed locality-specific CSU data are available on DJJ's website.
- » Subsequent commitments are excluded unless otherwise specified. An offense that occurred while in direct care also may result in an adult jail or prison sentence rather than a subsequent commitment to DJJ; these sentences are not included.
- » Blended sentences from circuit court are included as a commitment type. Data on blended sentences represent commitments with an active adult sentence at the time of commitment.
- » The categorization of commitment types (i.e., blended, determinate, indeterminate) and assigned LOSs are based on the initial commitment and not subsequent commitments unless otherwise specified.
- » Canceled, rescinded, and successfully appealed commitments are not included except in the direct care ADP and education data.

2 Programs and Services

Community Programs

DJJ is responsible for the operation of 30 CSUs and the coordination of community-based services for individuals who come in contact with the juvenile justice system. DJJ provides a continuum of community-based interventions to youth and families through partnerships with localities, non-profits, and contracted providers.

Juvenile Intake

Intake services are available 24 hours a day across the Commonwealth. The intake officer on duty has the authority to receive, review, and process complaints for delinquency, CHINS, CHINSup, and status offenses. Based on the information gathered, the intake officer determines whether a petition should be filed to initiate proceedings in the J&DR district court. When appropriate, the intake officer develops a diversion plan as an alternative to official court processing, which may include informal counseling or monitoring, skills coaching delivered by CSU staff, or referrals to community resources or services. (See pages 5-6 for information on diversion.)

DJJ has an After-Hours Video Intake Program to provide secure, remote intake coverage during non-business hours. It is used by all but one state-operated CSU, which conducts after-hours intakes locally.

If a petition is filed, the intake officer decides whether the youth should be released to a parent, guardian, or another responsible adult; placed in a detention alternative; or detained pending a court hearing. An intake case is considered pre-D detention-eligible if at least one of the associated intake complaints is pre-D detention-eligible. (See page 7 for pre-D detention eligibility criteria.) Decisions by intake officers concerning whether pre-D detention-eligible cases are appropriate for detention are guided by the completion of the DAI. The DAI assesses the youth and provides guidance in detention decisions using standardized, objective criteria. (See Appendix C.)

Investigations and Reports

Pre-D and post-D reports, also known as social history reports, constitute the majority of the reports completed by CSU personnel. These reports describe the behavior, needs, strengths, resilience, and social circumstances of youth and their families. Some reports are court-ordered and completed prior to disposition while others are completed following placement on probation or commitment to DJJ as required by Board of Juvenile Justice regulations and DJJ procedures. CSU personnel complete a YASI as part of the social history report, classifying the youth according to their relative risk of reoffending and determining strengths and areas of need. (See Appendix E.) The information in the social history report and YASI provide the basis for CSU personnel to develop assessment-driven case plans for youth. Pre-D social history reports include a disposition recommendation to the court. Most recommendations are guided by the DRT, a standardized tool that considers the seriousness of current and prior offenses, current and prior supervision statuses, YASI risk level, and criminal gang affiliation.

CSU personnel may complete other instruments and reports, including substance use screenings, trauma screenings, CANS assessments and case summaries for the FAPT reviews under the CSA, commitment documentation, ICJ reports, MHSTPs, transfer reports when youth are being considered for trial in adult court, and ongoing case documentation.

DR/CW

In addition to handling complaints for delinquency, CHINS, CHINSup, and status offenses, CSUs provide intake services for DR/CW complaints. These complaints include paternity, determination of temporary or permanent custody, visitation rights, child support, abuse and neglect, family abuse, termination of parental rights, and emancipation. In some CSUs, services such as treatment referral, supervision, and counseling are provided in adult cases of domestic violence.

Pre-Court Services

Pre-court services are offered to youth and families prior to scheduled court hearings. The purpose of pre-court services is to offer support to youth and families who may be in crisis and in need of services immediately after a petition for delinquency is filed. At the time of intake, an intake officer may give families a list of community resources. Applicable resources and contact information provided may include the local department of social services; OCS; CSB; VJCCCA local plan services; Virginia Sexual and Domestic Violence Hotline; 2-1-1 Virginia; Virginia Workforce Connection; Unite Virginia; and food, housing, financial, and transportation assistance. Participation in services is voluntary, and the youth and families may decline any service offered or may choose to stop receiving accepted services at any time. The CSU staff may assist families in accessing services as needed. In FY 2025, 4,560 pre-court service statuses were opened, indicating youth and families were either offered or accepted the voluntary services.

Probation and Parole

Probation and parole are both forms of community supervision that place youth under the supervision of a CSU. Probation occurs as the result of a court-ordered disposition. Parole occurs following release from direct care for most youth and is designed to support the youth's successful transition back to the community by building on the programs and services received while in direct care.

Community supervision uses a balanced and evidence-based approach, emphasizing public safety, accountability, and competency development. Supervision levels are based on each youth's risk and needs, compliance with rules and expectations, and progress toward goals. Youth classified as the highest risk level receive the most intensive supervision and interventions. The length of probation is decided by the court with input from the PO. For youth with indeterminate commitments, the length of parole supervision is determined by DJJ and is based on youth's risk, needs, compliance with supervision rules, and progress toward the goals of their supervision plan. For determinate commitments, the length of parole supervision can be decided by the court or DJJ. In FY 2025, the average LOS for probation was 334 days, and the average LOS for parole was 371 days. All youth on probation or parole must be released from supervision by their 21st birthday. (See Appendix F for an overview of probation and parole statuses.)

POs provide case management for all youth on probation and parole. Case management includes assessing the risk and needs of youth; working with youth and their families to develop individualized case plans; offering ongoing support through regular contact at specified intervals based on supervision level; ensuring youth meet the rules and conditions of their supervision; and, for youth on parole, monitoring adjustment in the community. Case management further includes linking youth to services and providing structured programming that encourages them to build cognitive-behavioral, social, and life skills.

Programming and Services

In FY 2025, DJJ developed the FOCUS model to guide POs' contacts with youth on community supervision with a practical, consistent, safe, and flexible framework. The model emphasizes providing effective supports and skills based on the needs of individual youth, rather than over-emphasizing prescriptive compliance. The model is centered around six types of contacts with youth and their families, including case management, rapport building, cognitive-behavioral skill building, social skill building, life skill building, and crisis support. The types of contacts delivered to individual youth depend on a PO's professional judgment and consideration of three core tenets: fidelity to the case plan, flexibility, and balance across the course of supervision. By using the FOCUS model, POs identify and address individualized risk factors and needs through case management, skill building, and connection to services. POs also build engagement with youth and their families and support progress toward goals. POs receive ongoing coaching and technical support on how to apply the model effectively across diverse situations. (See pages 61-63 for more information on the FOCUS model.)

As part of the case management aspect of FOCUS, POs coordinate services for youth's individualized case plans. These services may be provided by DJJ staff or procured by DJJ through the RSC model (a statewide network of approved public and private DSPs described below). Additionally, youth may receive services funded through CSA, Medicaid, and VJCCCA. Services may include individual and family counseling, life skills coaching, career-readiness education, substance use treatment, gang prevention, and other community-based services. Youth on parole may also receive workforce coordination and other transitional services as part of their reentry plan. The QA Unit provides implementation and operational support to CSU staff to ensure supervision and service delivery adhere to best practices, RNR principles, and DJJ's guiding values.

RSC Model

For services provided through the RSC model, POs connect youth and families to a continuum of community-based and residential services that offer programs and treatments to meet their needs. The RSC model includes evidence-based services such as the adolescent community reinforcement approach, brief strategic family therapy, FFT, MST, high fidelity wraparound intensive care coordination, The Seven Challenges®, substance use intensive outpatient programs, and trauma-focused CBT. In FY 2025, DJJ continued to contract with EBA to serve as an RSC and assist DJJ with implementing this continuum of services for youth and families. (See pages 47-48 for more information about the continuum of services related to direct care.)

The RSC supports DJJ's continuum of services by managing centralized referrals, service coordination, quality assurance, billing, and reporting. They are responsible for assessing existing programming, developing new service capacity, and selecting and subcontracting with DSPs. They also are responsible for monitoring the quality of the DSPs and fidelity to evidence-based practices and programs, completing ongoing service gap analyses, and filling those service gaps. The QA Unit manages the RSC model and facilitates quality improvement initiatives and technical assistance. In FY 2026, DJJ works directly with DSPs and exercises full responsibility for service coordination.

Residential Parole Programs

Through the RSC model, DJJ also provides funding for residential placements for youth on parole. Residential programs include transitional living programs certified by DJJ and utilized solely for DJJ youth, independent living programs licensed by DSS, and group homes licensed by DBHDS. These programs provide an opportunity for youth to learn and practice life skills in the community with wraparound support. The average LOS in these programs is approximately nine months.

TYSC: TYSC operates one transitional living program, the Apartment Living Program (Virginia Beach). This program includes eight beds in four apartments for youth ages 17.5 and older.

Intercept Health: Intercept Health operates two transitional living programs, Summit House (Chesterfield) and Summit West (Roanoke). Each program includes eight beds in a single-family home. Summit House serves youth ages 17.5 and older, and Summit West serves youth ages 17 and older.

Reentry

Reentry coordination provides treatment planning for youth in preparation for their release from direct care. Planning for reentry begins at commitment through collaboration with staff at the direct care placement, POs, reentry advocates, youth, and their families in order to create a seamless transition back to the community and improve youth outcomes. This includes strengthening family engagement; enrollment in school or trade programs; connections to employment, internships, and apprenticeships; participation in positive extracurricular activities; and ongoing mentorship and support to help youth feel valued and hopeful about their future. Reentry advocates are assigned regionally to connect youth and families with these resources and supports. (See pages 44-48 for more information on services for youth in direct care.)

ICJ

ICJ provides for the cooperative supervision of youth on probation or parole when moving from state to state. It also serves youth with delinquent and status offenses who have absconded, escaped, or run away, endangering their own safety or the safety of others. ICJ ensures that member states are responsible for the proper supervision or return of youth. It provides the procedures for (i) supervising youth in states other than where they were adjudicated delinquent or found guilty and placed on probation or parole supervision and (ii) returning youth who have escaped, absconded, or run away from their home state. All 50 states, the District of Columbia, and the U.S. Virgin Islands are current members. Additional information on ICJ, including ICJ history, forms, and manuals can be found at juvenilecompact.org.

* Individual CSU probation placements may not add to the total because some cases were open in multiple CSUs but are only counted once in the statewide total. The totals displayed above represent the statewide totals.

* Individual CSU detainment data are identified by the CSU that made the decision to detain the youth using the detaining FIPS (not the JDC location).

* Individual CSU detainments may not add to the total because some detainments were not assigned a detaining FIPS but are counted in the statewide total.

* Subsequent commitments are excluded. In FY 2025, CSU 22 had one subsequent commitment.

VJCCCA

In 1995, the General Assembly enacted VJCCCA “to establish a community-based system of progressive intensive sanctions and services that correspond to the severity of offense and treatment needs.” The purpose was “to deter crime by providing immediate, effective punishment that emphasizes accountability of the juvenile offender for his actions as well as reduces the pattern of repeat offending” (§ 16.1-309.2 of the Code of Virginia).

Under the legislation, state and local dollars are combined to fund community-based juvenile justice programs. All 133 localities in Virginia voluntarily participate. State funding is allocated to localities through a formula based on factors such as the number and types of arrests as well as the average daily cost of serving a youth. A locality can set its MOE to an amount equal to or higher than the state funds allocated by VJCCCA.

Effective in FY 2020, VJCCCA’s statutory purpose was expanded to include the deterrence of crime through community diversion or community-based services to juveniles assessed as needing such services. Localities are not required but may elect to include the category of prevention services. Prior to FY 2020, all VJCCCA funding was to be used to serve youth “before intake on complaints or the court on petitions alleging that the juvenile is a child in need of services, child in need of supervision, or delinquent” (§ 16.1-309.2 of the Code of Virginia).

Plan Development and Evaluation

Participation requires that localities develop a biennial plan for utilizing VJCCCA funding. While DJJ and the Board of Juvenile Justice must approve these plans, communities have autonomy and flexibility in addressing their juvenile offense patterns. Localities must consult with judges, CSU directors, and CSA CPMTs (interagency bodies that manage the expenditures of CSA state funding to serve children and families) in developing their plans. The local governing body designates an entity responsible for managing the plan. Some localities have combined their plans with one or more other localities. In FY 2025, there were a total of 73 VJCCCA plans throughout Virginia.

Localities may provide services directly or purchase services from other public or private agencies. Specific programs or services are not required, though a list of allowable programs and services is available on DJJ’s website. The intent is to use evidence-based programs and services to fit the needs of each locality and their youth.

DJJ oversees the management of VJCCCA. Each locality or group of localities must submit an annual evaluation for each of their programs to inform changes to the plan. The evaluations contain the utilization, cost-effectiveness, and success rate of each program or service in the plan as well as trend data and locality-specific needs to address juvenile offending.

Programs and Services

Youth can receive VJCCCA services before or after disposition, and an adjudication is not required. Programs and services are categorized under six headings: “Accountability,” “Competency Development,” “Grant Administration,” “Group Homes,” “Individually Purchased Services,” and “Public Safety.” “Accountability” includes programs such as community service and restorative justice. “Competency Development” encompasses the largest array of services, including skill development programs, substance use education, and other clinical services. “Grant Administration” includes coordination and administrative services for localities to oversee their placement plans but does not include placements for youth. Therefore, it is not included in the placements by service category type table on page 35. “Group Homes” includes locally and privately operated community group homes that serve court-involved youth. “Public Safety” includes alternatives to detention, such as outreach and electronic monitoring. Finally, “Individually Purchased Services” consists of additional services.

In FY 2025, the average cost for a VJCCCA residential placement was $10,294, and the average cost for a VJCCCA non-residential placement was $1,671. Non-residential placements encompass a variety of programming from electronic monitoring to treatment services. Average costs were calculated based on the number of placements and not the number of youth receiving services. Youth may have multiple placements during the FY. In FY 2023 and FY 2024 reports, some shelter care placements were miscategorized as non-residential. In FY 2025, all shelter care placements are categorized as residential. Therefore, the average costs per placement are not comparable to FY 2023 and FY 2024 reports.

In FY 2025, there were 819 placements in VJCCCA prevention services, which excluded one locality. The “Substance Use” service type had the highest percentage (58.6%) of placements. Other prevention service types included “Truancy,” “Pro-Social Skills,” “Community Service Learning,” “Life Skills,” and “Parenting.” Availability of VJCCCA prevention services varies by locality. VJCCCA prevention services data are not included in the tables and graphs of this report.

- » From FY 2023 to FY 2025, “Outreach/Electronic Monitoring” had the highest percentage (46.0-46.7%) and “Community Service” had the second-highest percentage (10.6-14.7%) of placements out of all service types.

Expenditures, FY 2025

- » Localities paid 50.2% of the total expenditures for VJCCCA programs. Of the total local expenditures, 57.6% were MOE, and 42.4% were additional funds.
- » VJCCCA funded the equivalent of 158.1 staff positions in FY 2025.

- » 8,995 services were closed.
- » 84.9% completed the services satisfactorily.

Each locality and program develops its own satisfactory completion criteria. A youth also may leave a program for unrelated reasons, such as status changes, program closures, or youth relocations.

JDCs

DJJ provides partial funding and serves as the regulatory agency for 24 JDCs operated by local governments or multijurisdictional commissions. JDCs provide temporary care for youth in secure custody pending a court appearance (pre-D) and those held after disposition (post-D). Educational instruction is required within 24 hours of detainment (or the next school day) and is provided by licensed staff funded by VDOE's Division of State Operated Programs and contracted through a local school division. In addition to attending school while in a JDC, youth participate in a structured program of care, which includes medical and mental health screenings and services, recreational and psycho-educational activities, visitation, and volunteer services (e.g., services provided by religious organizations). The map on page 38 shows the area served by each JDC in FY 2025.

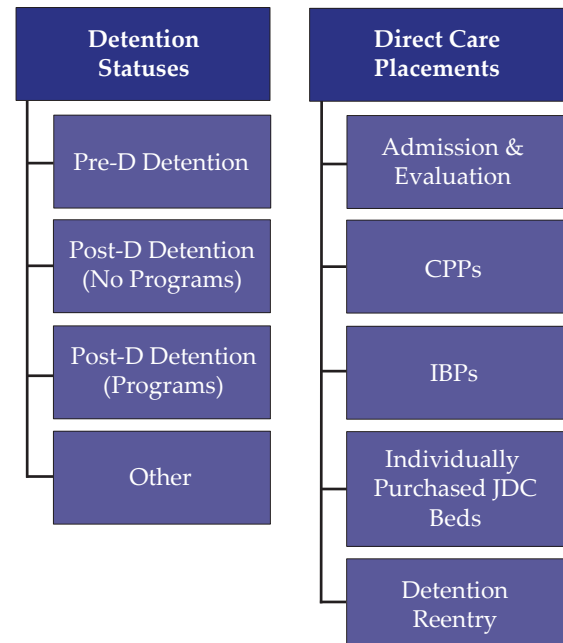

Each JDC provides pre-D detention, which can be ordered by a judge, intake officer, or magistrate. (See page 7 for pre-D detention eligibility criteria.) Intake officers use the DAI to make detention decisions. (See Appendix C.) All JDCs also provide post-D detention without programs, typically for up to 30 days, while some JDCs provide post-D detention with programs for up to six months for most offenses pursuant to § 16.1-284.1 of the Code of Virginia. Treatment services in post-D detention with programs are coordinated by the JDC, the CSU, and the youth's family, sometimes including local mental health and social services agencies. Individualized services such as anger management, substance use treatment, life skills, career-readiness education, and classes on victim empathy are provided to meet youth's needs. As of June 30, 2025, 219 of the 1,380 certified JDC beds were certified to facilitate post-D detention with programs.

JDC-Based Direct Care Placements

Some JDCs also provide direct care placement options. Nineteen JDCs partner with DJJ to facilitate the admission and evaluation process for youth in direct care, which includes medical and mental health assessments, behavioral reports, and education information. As of June 30, 2025, six JDCs contract with DJJ to operate CPPs, which are evidence-informed residential programs for youth in direct care with dedicated JDC staff to provide services. Seven JDCs contract with DJJ to operate IBPs, which utilize outsourced service providers through the RSC model to ensure treatment completion for youth in direct care. Five JDCs operate detention reentry programs, which allow youth in direct care to transition back to the community 30 to 180 days before release. Youth in direct care admission and evaluation, CPPs, IBPs, detention reentry, or individually purchased JDC beds are counted in the direct care population despite being housed in JDCs. In FY 2025, the direct care ADP in JDC facilities was 137 youth. See the graphic below for an outline of detention and direct care placement types in JDCs. This section contains detention data for JDCs; see pages 49-58 for data on direct care, which are not reported here.

JDC Offerings

JDC Detention Data

A detainment is counted as the first admission of a continuous detention stay. A new detainment is not counted if a youth is transferred to another JDC (e.g., for a court hearing in another jurisdiction) or has a change in dispositional status (e.g., from pre-D detention to post-D detention with programs) before being released.

Detention dispositional statuses are categorized as pre-D, post-D without programs, post-D with programs, or other. (See Appendix B.) Statuses are counted for each new status or status change. One detainment may have multiple dispositional statuses; therefore, the total number of dispositional statuses is higher than the total number of detainments.

Individual offenses from a single intake case are associated with a detainment. Any changes to these offenses after intake (e.g., nolle prosequi, amended) or additional intake cases may not be reflected in the data, resulting in possible inaccuracies in the offense data for post-D detention. (See page 41 for detaining MSO data for pre-D detention.)

JDCs by Area Served*

* Some localities utilize multiple JDCs. The localities served are determined by the highest number of detainments in FY 2025.

* Culpeper County is served by Blue Ridge JDC; Emporia is served by Crater JDC; Galax is served by Highlands JDC; Franklin City, Isle of Wight, Portsmouth, Southampton, and Suffolk are served by Merrimac JDC.

Direct Care

DJJ uses multiple placement options for youth in direct care. As of June 30, 2025, DJJ operates one JCC (Bon Air JCC) with an operating capacity of 208 beds. An additional 67 beds are available in six CPPs. Some JDCs also house youth for admission and evaluation services, IBPs, individually purchased JDC beds, and detention reentry. Youth in direct care also may be placed in other contracted alternatives. DJJ implements direct care programs to ensure committed youth receive effective treatment and educational services.

Admission and Evaluation

The CAP Unit receives and reviews all commitment documentation and oversees the admission and orientation process. The BAU coordinates evaluations for youth admitted to direct care. All youth are evaluated at either the JCC or a JDC. The process includes medical, psychological, behavioral, educational, and career-readiness assessments. A team meets to discuss and identify treatment and mental health needs, determine projected LOS, recommend placement, and develop the CRCP.

Depending on a youth's individual needs, the youth may be assigned to one or more treatment programs, including aggression management, substance use, and sex offender treatment. Although treatment needs generally are identified during the evaluation process, a youth can be reassessed at any time while in direct care.

Placement recommendations at the conclusion of the evaluation process may include a referral to a CPP or another alternative placement. If a youth is eligible, a referral is submitted through the case management review process, and a transfer is coordinated as needed.

LOS Guidelines

The LOS Guidelines seek to promote accountability and rehabilitation of indeterminately committed youth by combining data-driven decision making with an analysis of the youth's individualized therapeutic, educational, vocational, and behavioral needs. They provide a baseline for estimating the youth's LOS and build in an enhanced review and evaluation process that considers additional eligibility requirements for release. The goal is to ensure that indeterminately committed youth have obtained the skills and resources needed for successful reentry into the community.

The current LOS Guidelines took effect on March 1, 2023, and apply to youth committed on or after that date. (See Appendix D.) The assigned LOS for an indeterminate commitment is a calculated range of time (e.g., 6-9 months) from the commitment date; the first number in the range represents the youth's ERD, and the second number represents the youth's LRD. Youth's projected LOSs are calculated using their assessed YASI risk level and the MSO for the current commitment.

Indeterminately committed youth may not be held past their statutory release date (typically 36 continuous months or their 21st birthday). If a youth is committed for violating the terms of probation, the underlying MSO is used in determining the projected LOS. If a youth is determined to need inpatient sex offender treatment, the youth receives a treatment override and is not assigned a projected LOS. Youth with a treatment override are eligible for consideration for release upon completion of the designated treatment program. Youth may be assigned other treatment needs as appropriate and may be required to complete those treatment programs, achieve educational and workforce-development goals, and avoid certain behavioral infractions during established timeframes to meet release eligibility criteria. Under some circumstances, the director may approve requests for release in special decision cases based on recommendations from the CCRC and unique circumstances such as medical hardship or an LOS treatment override.

JCC Programs

JCC programs offer community reintegration and specialized services in a secure residential setting on a 24-hour basis. Youth are assigned to appropriate housing units based on vulnerability, treatment needs, and other factors. In addition, some designated units house youth with significant needs involving mental health, low intellectual functioning, poor adaptive functioning, or individual vulnerabilities that hinder their ability to function in other units adequately and safely.

Case management and treatment staff collaborate to coordinate and deliver services for youth based on risk and treatment needs. Staff facilitate groups and address individual needs. Progress is assessed and reviewed monthly via multidisciplinary treatment team meetings. Staff also work with CSUs and the Reentry Unit to develop a transition and parole plan for reentry. BSU, Health Services, Programming, Food Services, Case Management, Security, and Maintenance support JCC operations. DJJ provides educational and career-readiness services to meet the needs of youth in direct care. Residents also engage in extracurricular programming that develops leadership and life skills by providing real-world opportunities and connections. Opportunities include recreational services, community service activities, religious and mentoring services, incentive opportunities and events offered through PBIS, and a gang violence intervention program.

DJJ focuses on family engagement during a youth's direct care stay. Youth's families often live more than a one-hour drive from Bon Air JCC, and the distance can pose a barrier to families wishing to visit. To assist those families, DJJ partners with Assisting Families of Inmates to provide free transportation to families with youth at Bon Air JCC from various sites across the Commonwealth.

Facility-Wide PBIS

In FY 2018, DJJ educational staff began implementing PBIS, an evidence-based tiered framework that helps build protective factors for youth using universal, targeted, and intensive supports. In FY 2024, PBIS was launched facility-wide at Bon Air JCC.

PBIS encourages systematic teaching of universal behavioral expectations, positive reinforcement systems for staff and youth, and function-based responses to problem behavior. Behavioral expectations that are aligned with DJJ's four guiding values are taught directly and reinforced through immediate feedback, therapeutic structured activities, mutual help groups, check-ins, and circle-ups. (See page 2 for more information on DJJ's guiding values.)

Education

DJJ provides educational opportunities for middle school, high school, and post-secondary students at the Yvonne B. Miller High School and Post-Secondary Programs in Bon Air JCC. Offerings include an array of high school completion routes, such as an Advanced Studies Diploma, Standard Diploma, Applied Studies Diploma, or GED®. DJJ also offers apprenticeships and opportunities to earn certifications, credentials, certificates, and college credits for students interested in continuing their education after graduation. The school is staffed by administrators and teachers who are licensed by VDOE.

When youth enter Bon Air JCC, school counselors evaluate student records and place youth in an appropriate educational program. School counselors complete a career and academic plan with each student to create a program of study for high school graduation and a post-secondary career pathway. To address educational gaps, DJJ uses a blended learning model to meet the unique needs of the students. This model is a combination of direct instruction, online modules, and hands-on learning activities. Teachers provide instruction aligned with the SOL and actively track students' progress.

DJJ offers CTE courses as well as applicable certification and credentialing opportunities. These offerings prepare youth for employment while simultaneously meeting the Commonwealth's need for well-trained and industry-certified technical workers. For example, NCCER credentials are industry-recognized trade and construction credentials that allow emerging and experienced professionals to demonstrate the skills critical for success in the industry. Additionally, the W!SE Certified Financial Literacy credential is aligned with VDOE's personal finance course requirement.

DJJ utilizes the VTSS framework that combines academic, behavioral, and social-emotional wellness into a single decision-making framework to establish the supports needed for schools to be effective learning environments. VTSS requires the use of evidence-based, system-wide practices with fidelity to provide a quick response to academic, behavioral, social, and emotional needs. Practices are subject to continuous progress evaluation to enable educators to make evidence-based instructional decisions for students within the facility-wide PBIS framework. Academically, focus remains on strengthening core instruction of Tier 1 RTI, which is the process of monitoring effective, high-quality instruction and the systematic responses to students' needs.

A higher proportion of students at Bon Air JCC (33-40%) receive special education compared to students in Virginia public schools (12-14%). The Yvonne B. Miller High School teaches self-advocacy skills to students with disabilities using tools and materials from established programs. The primary focus is helping students gain the confidence and skills to navigate their own lives, ask for help, solve problems, and understand their rights as people with disabilities. Students with disabilities also may participate in both the Pre-Employment Transitions Services and Pathway programs offered through DARS. These services help students connect to post-secondary programming, explore career options, and prepare for reentry into the community. Student support services are also available in the areas of English language, gifted education, and reading.

Post-Secondary and Workforce Development

DJJ provides opportunities for youth to continue learning through post-secondary education and programming. Post-secondary courses are geared toward the attainment of industry certifications, state board licenses, or the completion of college programs. While youth are in direct care at Bon Air JCC, DJJ provides opportunities to enroll in college courses and to earn credentials in skilled trades that are in high demand, including carpentry, electrical services, HVACR, and plumbing.

In addition to credentialing opportunities, DJJ supports career readiness for youth in several ways, including a Workforce Development Center at Bon Air JCC to teach soft skills, build employment portfolios, and connect youth to employment opportunities in the community once released. DJJ also collaborates with employers to build curriculums that meet employers' needs, create opportunities for interviews and internships, and help connect youth to meaningful careers at release. Job-readiness and employment coaching are also provided.

DJJ maintains partnerships with JDCs to provide program funding for post-secondary direct care youth to support technology needs, online courses, college enrollment, and certificate and credentialing opportunities. Youth in some JDC-based placements may earn credentials in construction, welding, and C-Tech programming, which offers certification in the areas of telecommunications, network cabling, and grounding and bonding.

BSU

BSU is the organizational unit responsible for providing clinical treatment services for youth at Bon Air JCC. The primary services provided by BSU staff include treatment for mental health issues, aggression management, substance use, and sex offending, as well as prerelease risk assessments.

Aggression Management Treatment: aggression management treatment services are provided in all units. Intensive treatment is group oriented and more rigorous compared to prescriptive treatment, which is delivered individually as needed. Youth must complete core objectives that address anger control, moral reasoning, and social skills as well as demonstrate aggression management in their daily interactions. Treatment typically lasts three months; however, time to completion may vary depending on individual needs. Bon Air JCC offers ART® for most youth and modified DBT in some units. Modified DBT is a treatment program originally designed to help people with emotional self-regulation difficulties who engage in self-harm, but it has been expanded to populations with other problem behaviors. Core therapeutic activities focus on teaching improved emotion regulation, interpersonal effectiveness, distress tolerance, mindfulness, and self-management skills.

Substance Use Treatment: cognitive-behavioral substance use treatment services are provided to all youth with an identified treatment need. Track I is for youth meeting DSM criteria for substance use disorder. Track II is for youth who have experimented with substances but do not meet the DSM criteria for substance use disorder. Bon Air JCC offers the CYT substance use program to address marijuana and alcohol use. The Seven Challenges®, a comprehensive counseling program that addresses both substance use and underlying issues, is also being delivered to residents with more significant substance use patterns, including opioids or polysubstance use. Bon Air JCC also offers Voices, a gender-specific program for girls, which addresses substance use as well as issues with self, relationships, life choices, and coping skills, among other topics. Depending on individual needs, completion of substance use treatment services requires five weeks to six months.

Sex Offender Treatment: BSU provides cognitive-behavioral sex offender evaluation and treatment services in specialized treatment units and in the general population. Three levels of treatment include inpatient, mid-level, and prescriptive. Youth requiring inpatient or mid-level treatment services receive individual, group, and family therapy within specialized units. Prescriptive treatment is delivered individually as needed. All youth in sex offender treatment units receive individualized intensive treatment from specially trained therapists as part of a specialized multidisciplinary treatment team. Successful completion of sex offender treatment may require six to 36 months, depending on the youth's treatment needs, behavioral stability, and motivation.

Mental Health Services: BSU provides 24-hour crisis intervention; individual, group, and family therapy; mental status evaluations; case consultations and development of individualized behavior support protocols; program development and implementation; and staff training. Mental health professionals complete risk assessments for all serious offenders, sex offender special decision cases, and other special decision cases by request.

MHSTPs: for qualifying youth, a team of direct care staff, medical and mental health professionals, the PO, service providers, family members, and the youth collaborate to develop an MHSTP. The purpose of the MHSTP is to ensure the provision and continuation of treatment services for mental health, substance use, and other needs as the youth transitions from a residential placement to the community.

Health Services

The Health Services Unit provides quality healthcare services to youth in the JCC. DJJ employs medical and dental providers who provide assessment and treatment services as well as care for youth. In addition, contracted psychiatrists and optometrists provide healthcare services to the youth at the facility. Nurses are assigned to housing units to establish a primary medical relationship and educate youth on health and wellness issues. On-site staff are supplemented by a network of hospitals, physicians, and allied health providers to ensure all medically necessary healthcare services are provided in a manner consistent with community standards.

PREA

DJJ has a zero-tolerance policy toward any incident involving the sexual abuse or sexual harassment of a youth. Mandated by the federal government, PREA makes detection and prevention of sexual abuse and sexual harassment a top priority in all facilities housing committed youth. The PREA Unit consists of an agency PREA coordinator, facility PREA compliance manager, alternative placement PREA manager, and PREA analyst. All DJJ and alternative placement staff members are responsible for making DJJ-operated and contracted facilities safe by preventing, detecting, and reporting sexual abuse and sexual harassment. This effort begins with staff being respectful of youth and supporting a culture that does not tolerate sexual abuse or sexual harassment. Staff receive extensive training on how to identify risk factors, preventive measures, reporting mechanisms, and maintaining professional boundaries. Youth also receive extensive training, resources, and information on how to recognize and report sexual abuse and sexual harassment. Staff and youth are given multiple ways to report sexual abuse or sexual harassment. DJJ ensures all allegations of sexual abuse and sexual harassment are thoroughly investigated.

Human Rights Coordinators

A grievance program staffed by human rights coordinators is in place at the JCC as a safeguard for youth and to provide a strong system of advocacy. By monitoring living conditions and service delivery systems, the program identifies and solves problems that may harm or impede rehabilitative efforts; protects the rights of youth; promotes system accountability; and ensures safe, humane, and lawful living conditions. Human rights coordinators also serve as impartial and objective staff who conduct due process hearings for youth alleged to have committed an institutional infraction. The human rights coordinators operate independently from residential programs to provide youth with a resource to address concerns.

JDC Direct Care Placement Options

Some youth in direct care may be placed at a JDC (e.g., CPPs, IBPs, detention reentry). CPPs are structured residential programs operated in local JDCs for direct care youth. A goal of the CPPs is to place youth in smaller settings closer to their home communities to facilitate a smoother transition after release and to increase family engagement. CPPs focus on increasing competency in the areas of education, vocational preparation, life and social skills, thinking skills, employability skills, and anger management. CPPs use the YASI as the basis for case planning to address criminogenic needs. Services focus on dynamic risk factors using cognitive-behavioral techniques and are tailored to meet the individual needs outlined in the youth's CRCP. Additionally, CPPs deliver aggression management and substance use treatment services. Youth in CPPs are housed in units separate from the JDC population. As of June 30, 2025, the six participating JDCs were Blue Ridge, Chesterfield, Newport News, Prince William, Shenandoah Valley, and Virginia Beach. Prince William CPP closed to youth on July 2, 2025.

IBPs are individualized residential programs operated in local JDCs for direct care youth. IBPs provide case management services, general facility programming, and educational services. The YASI is used for case planning, and services are contracted through the RSC model to meet each youth's individualized treatment needs and CRCP. As of June 30, 2025, the seven participating JDCs were Chesterfield, Crater, Highlands, Merrimac, Northern Virginia, Piedmont, and Rappahannock. Additionally, individual beds may be purchased at any JDC on an as-needed basis.

Additionally, some JDCs provide detention reentry programs for youth in direct care, allowing them to begin transitioning back to the community 30 to 180 days before their scheduled release date. Similar to CPPs, these programs facilitate parole planning services with the assigned POs and allow for increased visitation with families and community involvement. As of June 30, 2025, the five participating JDCs were Blue Ridge, Norfolk, Rappahannock, Richmond, and Shenandoah Valley.

The CAP Unit maintains a variety of case management responsibilities for direct care youth in JDCs. The CAP Unit acts as a liaison between the JDCs and DJJ staff such as the youth's PO. Although youth in direct care admission and evaluation, CPPs, IBPs, individually purchased JDC beds, and detention reentry are housed in JDCs, they are counted in the direct care population and not in the JDC population.

Continuum of Services

While the JCC and JDC-based alternatives provide secure placement options for youth in direct care, the broader continuum of services includes additional contracted secure and nonsecure placement options, such as therapeutic group homes and RTCs that are available through the RSC model. The CAP Unit maintains case management responsibilities for youth in these placements and acts as a liaison between the placements and DJJ. (See page 19 for more information about the continuum of services and the RSC model.)

Reentry

Reentry staff, including the Family Engagement Unit, assist youth and their families in preparing for the transition from direct care to the community. Reentry advocates, each serving one of the six regions across the Commonwealth, help develop and implement a comprehensive and collaborative reentry plan and support the transition of youth back to the community. Advocates provide support and guidance in the areas of employment, education and career planning, connection to human service agencies, and obtaining identification documents. Prerelease services are initiated six to nine months prior to release and typically include therapy, life skills, and mentorship.

DJJ provides additional services that promote public safety and accountability through partnerships with community organizations. These partners provide services to support a successful transition and reintegration into the community. A selection of these partnerships is described below:

Dominion Energy: DJJ partners with Dominion Energy to provide employment opportunities for youth who complete a trades program.

Network Industries: DJJ partners with Network Industries to provide employment opportunities for youth in the maritime industry.

DMV Connect: if youth are released from direct care without official state-issued photo identification, they can face barriers to gaining employment, housing, and access to services. To provide youth with a better chance of success when reentering the community, DJJ partners with the DMV to bring a mobile office to the JCC on a regular basis to provide state-issued photo identification to youth who are in Bon Air JCC. Reentry advocates coordinate with the community DMV mobile office to provide state-issued photo identification to youth released from direct care. Through this partnership, DJJ's reentry advocates administer the learner's permit exam to eligible youth.

Medicaid Pre-Application: CVIU streamlines the Medicaid application and enrollment process for incarcerated individuals in Virginia. DJJ's reentry advocates submit applications for eligible youth 18 years of age and older to CVIU prior to release from direct care, resulting in applications being processed in a more timely manner to prevent a gap in coverage at release.

Fostering Futures: DJJ and DSS have an MOA to serve youth who were in foster care immediately prior to their commitment. Youth who age out of foster care while in direct care are enrolled in the Fostering Futures program, which provides independent living resources to support youth over the age of 18 as they return to the community.

Assisting Families of Inmates: through Assisting Families of Inmates, youth are offered funds to address transition service gaps that cannot be met by DJJ. Funding may be used to help youth maintain their physical and mental health by paying for prescriptions, medical care, and health insurance co-pays. Funding also may be used to support educational goals, purchase equipment or transportation, and meet other reentry needs.

QA Unit

The QA Unit monitors the integrity and success of internal initiatives and contracted interventions, including the implementation of FOCUS; the RSC model; Bon Air JCC; and JDCs that provide direct care admission and evaluation services, CPPs, IBPs, and detention reentry programs. The unit provides oversight and comprehensive reviews, assessments, and reports regarding fidelity to evidence-based models and compliance with contract requirements. Using a collaborative approach, the QA Unit conducts strengths-based performance monitoring, provides coaching and technical assistance, and assists in developing individualized CQI plans to ensure programs align with best practices, the RNR model, and DJJ's guiding values. The unit also tracks performance measures, identifies program strengths and weaknesses, confirms services are tailored to meet youth's needs, and provides support and advocacy to promote ongoing system improvements across DJJ. The QA Unit is also the designated DJJ liaison to all JDCs and provides technical assistance to Bon Air JCC.

The QA Unit uses SPEP™ as an evaluative tool to establish sustainable quality service delivery, improve performance, and optimize youth outcomes. In partnership with Vanderbilt University, QA Unit staff have attained Level II SPEP™ Trainer certification and actively train Level I SPEP™ specialists. The QA SPEP™ teams have partnered with Bon Air JCC, CPPs, and the Rappahannock Area Office on Youth to evaluate services and provide recommendations for optimizing services for youth. The QA Unit is currently developing a plan for implementing SPEP™ with community providers.

3 Special Topics

DJJ's Research Unit analyzes data to evaluate programs, initiatives, and trends to provide meaningful information to decision-makers and improve services and outcomes. The following studies represent a selection of projects from FY 2025.

DRT Evaluation

On January 1, 2025, DJJ began implementing the DRT: a standardized tool developed to guide POs in recommending a disposition to the court when a pre-D social history report is ordered. The tool is designed to encourage recommendations that decrease the likelihood of bias (e.g., racial disparity, justice by geography) and enhance public safety by consistently promoting appropriate levels of supervision. This section describes the DRT scoring process, presents preliminary data from the first six months of DRT implementation, and describes the Research Unit's plan for further evaluation of the tool.

DRT Scoring and Recommendations

A youth's DRT score is calculated based on seven scoring factors: (i) the most serious present adjudicated offense, (ii) other present adjudicated offenses, (iii) supervision status at the time of the present offense(s), (iv) prior adjudications of guilt, (v) prior supervision status, (vi) gang involvement, and (vii) YASI dynamic risk level. Each scoring factor includes a range of possible scores based on the specific characteristics of the case, and these factors are summed to calculate the youth's total DRT score. Based on early implementation feedback from staff, the DRT was revised on May 14, 2025, to improve recommendations and promote public safety. The revision increased the points assigned for present offenses of murder and other serious offenses (e.g., voluntary manslaughter, aggravated involuntary manslaughter, rape).

After applying the scoring factors to adjudicated cases, the case will fall within one of five scoring ranges, which guide staff toward two possible disposition recommendations. The final decision of the most appropriate recommendation is left to the staff's discretion. A completed DRT includes an actual disposition recommendation; only completed DRTs are included in the data for this section. An exceptions process exists for rare cases when the tool's disposition recommendations may not be appropriate. All exceptions must receive supervisor approval before being presented as the official recommendation to the court. During the first six months of implementation, there were 39 approved exceptions (5.7% of all completed DRTs), which are excluded from all data presented in this section.

DRT Disposition Options by Scoring Range*

Range	Disposition Options
1-4	Referral(s) and Reporting of Outcomes to the Court
	Post-D Case Management
5-10	Post-D Case Management
	Court-Ordered Probation Supervision
11-20	Court-Ordered Probation Supervision
	Court-Ordered Out of Home Placement with Case Management or Probation
21-25	Suspended Commitment with Probation
	Indeterminate Commitment
26+	Indeterminate Commitment
	Serious Offender Commitment

* Some disposition recommendations are dependent on eligibility.

* Disposition options are ordered from least to most restrictive.

Completed DRTs by Scoring Range

» 646 DRTs were completed between January 1, 2025, and June 30, 2025.

Recommended Dispositions from DRTs, January-June 2025

» In the first six months of DRT implementation, the majority of completed DRTs (59.3%) included a recommendation for a disposition of court-ordered probation supervision.

Restrictiveness of Recommended Dispositions by Scoring Range, January-June 2025

» Within each scoring range, there is a more restrictive and a less restrictive disposition recommendation option. In the first six months of DRT implementation, POs tended to recommend the more restrictive disposition option for DRTs with lower scores (i.e., scores in the 1-4 and 5-10 scoring ranges) and the less restrictive disposition option for DRTs with higher scores (i.e., scores in the 11-20, 21-25, and 26+ scoring ranges).

DRT Evaluation

To assist with the continued improvement of the DRT, the Research Unit will conduct two evaluations: an implementation evaluation and an outcome evaluation. The implementation evaluation will be completed at the end of the first year of implementation and include the number of DRTs completed, the distribution of scores, the types of disposition recommendations from POs, and insights into approved exceptions. Results from the implementation evaluation will be shared with staff in Community Programs and the Training Unit to ensure the tool is being used as intended and inform additional guidance as needed. The outcome evaluation will assess whether recommendations generated from the DRT align with actual court dispositions and whether the level of alignment is consistent across CSUs. Together, these two evaluations can be used to inform stakeholders about potential adjustments to the tool and ensure POs are able to make consistent recommendations that best address youth needs and prioritize public safety.

FOCUS Model Evaluation

DJJ's new community supervision model, FOCUS, was implemented on March 3, 2025. The FOCUS model contributes to DJJ's mission of preparing court-involved youth to be productive citizens and enhances public safety by providing youth on community supervision with structured and effective programming. The model encourages youth to build the necessary cognitive-behavioral, social, and life skills to lead a successful life. FOCUS was developed in partnership with researchers from the Wilder School's Center for Public Policy at Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU) with Virginia's specific needs in mind, promoting research-based practices with practical, consistent, and flexible guidance to staff supervising youth. The Community Programs division oversees the implementation of the FOCUS model with support from the Training Unit, QA Unit, and Records & Data Integrity Unit, who assist with staff training, ongoing coaching, and job aids.

The FOCUS Model

Youth success during and after community supervision is based on an individualized approach to the following four components:

- » Engagement: rapport between the youth, their family, and PO; buy-in and goal setting; active programmatic participation
- » Case planning: risk assessment; alignment of service referrals, goals, and priorities
- » Behavior change: cognitive-behavioral learning
- » Skill building: social skills and life skills (including education and employment)

The FOCUS model provides a framework for POs to determine the focus of each contact with a youth to address these components and achieve success over the course of supervision. Supervision contacts are implemented based on three tenets: fidelity to the case plan, flexibility, and balance.

Fidelity refers to alignment between the action steps of a youth's case plan and their short- and long-term goals while concentrating on a youth's criminogenic needs and targeted risk items. Flexibility refers to the need for POs to adjust focuses based on youth's changing needs during each contact as well as across the supervision period. Balance refers to providing an appropriate mix of contact focuses over the course of supervision. The six contact focuses allow POs to plan and conduct contacts according to the three tenets.

Implementation Evaluation

The FOCUS model is evidence-informed and will be continuously evaluated by the Research Unit to ensure future adaptations and improvements are data-driven, reflect the values of the agency, and are based on the needs of DJJ staff and youth. Implementation evaluation efforts are completed through a collaboration between the Research Unit and VCU. The implementation evaluation places an emphasis on the importance of staff feedback and communicating findings to agency stakeholders involved in implementation and support functions to improve the model. Following the initial FOCUS training, a staff survey found that the e-learning course improved both staff knowledge about the model as well as confidence in implementing the model. It also indicated several areas where staff wanted more support and training. Focus groups with POs and an in-depth survey of Community Programs staff were completed in Fall 2025.

Implementation is also being monitored using an interactive dashboard, which is updated quarterly. The dashboard reports the number of FOCUS contacts by focus, topic, and method. It can also be filtered by region or CSU.

Data in the dashboard and this section only include FOCUS contacts for youth on probation or parole. During the first three months of FOCUS implementation, 7,452 FOCUS contacts were made with 2,226 youth. Over half of those contacts (55.1%) included at least one family member, an important indicator of engagement.

FOCUS Contacts by Contact Focus, March-May 2025

- » The FOCUS model encourages staff to use a balance of different contact focuses, remaining flexible to the individual needs and circumstances of youth. The most frequently used contact focuses for each youth will depend on their individual needs and case plan. In the first three months of implementation, cognitive-behavioral skill building (29.3%), life skill building (22.9%), and case management (22.5%) contact focuses were the most common statewide.
- » Crisis support, a contact focus designed to only be used in instances where a youth needs immediate assistance to address an ongoing crisis, was the least common contact focus (2.5%).

FOCUS Contact Method and Location, March-May 2025*

* "Other (In Person)" includes FOCUS contacts in secure facilities, residential placements, court, and other locations not shown.

- » Over half of all FOCUS contacts took place in a CSU office (56.5%), and approximately one-third took place in the youth's home, school, or community (29.1%).
- » Video contacts require supervisor approval and were used 64 times.

Future Evaluation Efforts

The Research Unit will continue to evaluate the implementation of the FOCUS model in order to inform potential adjustments to the model, related policies, and resources needed to improve delivery of the model. Future efforts will include further updates to the FOCUS dashboard, continued sharing of implementation evaluation results with staff, and an outcome evaluation. The outcome evaluation is designed to determine the effects of the FOCUS model on youth outcomes, such as service completion, changes in YASI risk and protective scores, and recidivism. Consistent communications and updates from the Research Unit to stakeholders will allow DJJ to adjust and optimize efforts in the continuous improvement of the model for youth and staff and promote long-term sustainability.

Forecast

Forecasts of persons confined in state and local correctional facilities are essential for criminal justice budgeting and planning in Virginia. The forecasts are used to estimate operating expenses and future capital needs and to assess the impact of current and proposed criminal justice policies. In order to fulfill the requirements of Item 377 of Chapter 2 of the 2025 Acts of Assembly, the SPSHS presents updated forecasts annually for the juvenile local-responsible (JDC) population, juvenile state-responsible (direct care) population, adult local-responsible (jail) population, and adult state-responsible (prison) population. Summaries of the juvenile population forecasts are presented in this section. In FY 2025, DJJ added a new forecast for detainments.

A number of historical factors, including statutory or policy changes, COVID-19, and trends in the number of juvenile intake cases, may influence the population forecasts. Policy and procedure changes (e.g., LOS Guidelines) also may impact future trends and are accounted for to the extent possible in the forecasts.

For the full forecast report by the SPSHS, view the “Report on the Offender Population Forecasts (FY 2026 to FY 2031)” on the Virginia Legislative Information System’s website (lis.virginia.gov).

Recidivism

Methodology

Recidivism, or reoffending, is an important concept for juvenile and adult criminal justice systems because it provides a measure of outcome success. Use of standardized measures of recidivism allows for evaluations across different types of programs; however, a comparison of results is difficult because evaluation methodologies vary widely among organizations. Definitions of recidivism differ from study to study, and characteristics of the youth studied may not be similar or adequately identified.

DJJ uses the following three measures of recidivism:

Rearrest: a petitioned juvenile intake complaint for a new delinquent act or an adult arrest for a new criminal offense, regardless of the court's determination of delinquency or guilt.

Reconviction: a delinquent adjudication for a new delinquent act or a guilty conviction for a new criminal offense.

Reincarceration: a return to commitment, incarceration, or secure confinement subsequent to a rearrest and reconviction for a new delinquent act or criminal offense.

Recidivism data for youth served from FY 2020 through FY 2024 are presented for the following groups:

- » Intake cases with diversion plans,
- » Intake cases with first-time diversion plans (a subgroup of intake cases with diversion plans),
- » Successful diversion plans,
- » Probation placements,
- » Probation releases,
- » Direct care releases,
- » Parole placements (a subgroup of direct care releases with a parole start date within 30 days of release from direct care),
- » Parole releases,
- » Youth placed in VJCCCA programs,

- » Youth released from VJCCCA programs, and
- » Releases from post-D detention with programs.

Each year, the reoffense data are updated for all of the groups reported. Rates may change when re-examined next year because of updated final case dispositions. Due to cases still pending at the time of analysis, reconviction and reincarceration rates for FY 2024 groups are unavailable.

DJJ's recidivism analysis is based on data from several collaborating organizations: DJJ, VSP, VCSC, VADOC, and the State Compensation Board. Data on youth are maintained in DJJ's electronic data management system, which contains information on juvenile intakes, detainments, probation and parole statuses, and commitments for all localities in Virginia. DJJ obtains statewide adult arrest and conviction information from VSP and VCSC and statewide adult incarceration information from VADOC and the State Compensation Board. DJJ reviews the offense information from VSP to determine if it meets DJJ's recidivism definitions. Individuals' information is matched between data systems primarily by name and date of birth. Due to the lack of available data, deaths and out-of-state offenses during the follow-up period are not accounted for in this analysis.

Over time, DJJ removes identifying information from cases due to expungements and record retention practices. Youth with missing names or birth dates the first year they are in a recidivism group are excluded from the analysis because missing information prevents the matching of cases with different data systems. Less than 4% of any recidivism group were excluded due to missing data. Total counts in this section may not match values in other sections of the DRG due to these exclusions.

The measurement date determines the beginning of the follow-up period for each youth. For all groups, the measurement date itself is not included in the follow-up period. The length of time to rearrest indicates the difference between the measurement date and the first new petitioned juvenile intake or adult arrest. The length of time to reconviction indicates the difference between the measurement date and the first new petitioned juvenile intake or adult arrest that resulted in a delinquent or guilty finding. However, if a youth with a reconviction is missing rearrest data, the date of reconviction is used for both the rearrest and reconviction calculations. The length of time to reincarceration indicates the difference between the measurement date and the date of the first return to commitment, incarceration, or secure confinement subsequent to a reconviction.

Rearrest and reconviction definitions require a new delinquent act or a new criminal offense. Therefore, non-criminal DR/CW complaints, non-criminal traffic violations, status offenses, and technical violations (e.g., violation of probation or parole, contempt of court) are excluded. Felony and misdemeanor failure to appear offenses with the VCC prefix of FTA are considered a new criminal offense (see § 19.2-128 of the Code of Virginia), but all other failure to appear offenses are considered technical violations.

Youth transferred directly to a VADOC facility are excluded from direct care releases and parole placements. Youth transferred directly to jail cannot be identified and therefore are included in the direct care releases and parole placements.

With the drastic decrease in juvenile intake cases due to COVID-19 during FY 2020-2021, rearrest rates during that timeframe may be lower than previous or future years. Recidivism rates for FY 2022 through FY 2024 may be more comparable to pre-pandemic years.

Measurement Dates*

Reported Groups	Measurement Date
Intake Cases with Diversion Plans	Intake
Intake Cases with First-Time Diversion Plans	Intake
Successful Diversion Plans	Estimated Completion
Probation Placements	Probation Start
Probation Releases	Probation End
Direct Care Releases	Direct Care Release
Parole Placements	Direct Care Release
Parole Releases	Parole End
Youth Placed in VJCCCA	First Program Placement
Youth Released from VJCCCA	Last Program Release
Post-D Detention Releases	JDC Release

* For intake cases with diversion plans, intake cases with first-time diversion plans, probation placements, parole placements, and VJCCCA placements, the follow-up period may extend beyond the end date.

* Diversion plans do not constitute petitioned intakes, and VJCCCA placements may not have petitioned intakes; however, rearrest rates are reported to indicate subsequent petitioned intakes or adult arrests.

* Successful diversion plans are counted for each intake case with a successful diversion. The estimated completion for successful diversion plans is either 90 days (for truancy-only diversions through FY 2020) or 120 days (for all other diversion plans) after the intake date.

* VJCCCA groups use the first placement date or last release date in the FY, regardless of whether multiple programs are continuous or overlap FYs.

* Canceled, rescinded, and successfully appealed commitments are excluded from direct care releases and parole placements.

* For all diversion groups, intake cases are excluded if a complaint within the same intake case was petitioned, including an unsuccessful diversion with a petition filed.

* FYs for successful diversion plans are determined by the estimated completion date.

» Rearrest rates for diversion plans were lower than rearrest rates for probation placements and releases for each follow-up time period in each FY.

* The CSU for probation placements is identified by the J&DR district court that originally placed the youth on probation. The CSU for probation releases is identified by the CSU supervising the case at the time of release from probation supervision.

* Some groups were comprised of a small number of youth; therefore, rates can be strongly influenced by the reoffense of only a few youth.

36 months	43.2%	44.0%	N/A	N/A
Total	308	191	155	127

- » Reincarceration rates for direct care releases were lower than reincarceration rates for parole placements for each follow-up time period in each FY (with the exception of 3- and 6-month reincarceration rates in 2022). (See page 80 for reincarceration rates for parole placements.)
- » Of the 23 direct care releases in FY 2023 reincarcerated within 12 months of release, 52.2% were reincarcerated in direct care, 30.4% in a local jail, 17.4% in a VADOC facility, and none in a JDC.

See pages 83-84 for recidivism rates for direct care releases by risk level.

12-Month Recidivism Rates for Direct Care Releases by Treatment Need in FY 2022-2024, Tracked through FY 2025*

Treatment Need	Total Youth			Rearrest			Reconviction		Reincarceration

Substance Use	134	109	105	53.0%	52.3%	45.7%	41.0%	45.0%	16.4%	17.4%

* Treatment needs are subgroups of direct care releases and include youth with any level of treatment needs. One youth may have multiple treatment needs.

* An assigned treatment need does not indicate treatment completion.

* Recidivism by treatment need includes any type of reoffense, not only offenses specifically related to the treatment need.

* Some groups were comprised of a small number of youth; therefore, rates can be strongly influenced by the reoffense of only a few youth.

» Direct care releases with a sex offender treatment need had lower rearrest, reconviction, and reincarceration rates than direct care releases with an aggression management or substance use treatment need.

* Some groups were comprised of a small number of youth; therefore, rates can be strongly influenced by the reoffense of only a few youth.

Risk Levels

YASIs are completed by CSU and direct care staff to determine a youth's relative risk of reoffending. (See Appendix E.) A youth's recidivism risk is classified as low, moderate, or high based on the assessment. A youth's risk assessment score is one factor examined when probation and parole supervision levels are established, with high-risk youth typically receiving more intensive services.

As of FY 2024, all youth under probation or parole supervision or in direct care are reassessed at least every 90 days. However, the closest risk assessment completed within 180 days before or after the measurement date is used in this analysis to reflect practices of the years reported. Youth with no risk assessment completed in that timeframe are excluded.

With the exception of direct care releases and parole placements in FY 2021, high-risk youth had the highest recidivism rates for all groups across all years.

Appendix D: 2015 LOS Guidelines for Indeterminately Committed Juveniles, Effective October 15, 2015, Until February 28, 2023

For direct care admissions on or after October 15, 2015, DJJ used guidelines issued by the Board of Juvenile Justice in 2015 to assign the LOS for indeterminately committed youth based on the committing MSO and the risk to reoffend as indicated by the most recently administered YASI at the time of admission to direct care. LOS categories were defined by an anticipated minimum and maximum number of months that the youth would remain with DJJ. The actual LOS was determined through case-specific reviews depending on the youth's behavior, adjustment, and treatment progress. The 2023 LOS Guidelines (see next page) became effective for commitments on or after March 1, 2023.

Committing MSO

- » Tier II - weapons felony, narcotics distribution felony, or other felony that is not punishable for 20 or more years of confinement if the offense were committed by an adult
- » Tier III - felony against persons that is not punishable for 20 or more years of confinement if the offense were committed by an adult
- » Tier IV - felony offense punishable for 20 or more years of confinement if the offense were committed by an adult

Risk Level Categories

Appendix D, continued: 2023 LOS Guidelines for Indeterminately Committed Juveniles, Effective March 1, 2023

LOS categories are defined by an anticipated minimum and maximum number of months that the youth will remain with DJJ. The actual LOS is determined through case-specific reviews depending on the youth's behavior, adjustment, treatment progress, and educational requirements.
