

NO CAR? NO PROBLEM.

Free Bus Service For Visitation Is Available To DJJ Families

A visit from a family member is one of the most supportive and meaningful things you can do for your son or daughter while he/she is away. We at the Department of Juvenile Justice understand how frustrating it is to want to visit your child at a juvenile correctional center, but you don't have a car available, or it's just too far to drive.

That is no longer a barrier, thanks to a partnership DJJ has forged with James River Transportation and Assisting Families With Inmates. Every two weeks on a Sunday, JRT will provide a clean, modern shuttle bus operated by a courteous driver that will take your family in relaxing comfort to DJJ's Bon Air Juvenile Correctional Center during regular visitation hours.

There is no cost to you. All you have to do is arrive at the appointed time at one of the locations noted in the box at left, get on board, sit back and enjoy the ride. We'll take care of the rest.

Since there are limited seats on each vehicle, we do ask that you call at least five days in advance of your visit to reserve a seat. Children must be at least 1 year old and walking; families must provide car seat.

Thank you for staying involved in your child's life.

[NOTICE: Transportation Service is temporarily suspended due to the pandemic. Check this space for updates.]
